Ex-Nazis Hired
By Argentina, Says
Government Foe

Buenos Aires, July 21 (AP)—An opposition Congressman charged by inference today that more than 30 newly arrived Germans, including a number of Nazi aviation experts, are in the employ of the Argentine government.

Silvano Santander, a member of the Radical Party, introduced a resolution asking the government to explain the situation. He made his charge in the form of a question and pointed out that Argentina still is technically at war with Germany.

Santander mentioned three former German officers—SS (Elite Guard) Col. Otto Skowrony, wartime rescuer of Mussolini from the Badoglio Government of Italy, and two high ranking members of the German Air Force, Gen. Adolf Galland and Col. Hans Ulrich Rudel.
